ABOUT US

Harris Safety Training Services was established in 2010, we are a trusted Training Provider for hundreds of companies in the UK and in Europe.

We are one of the UK's top providers of IPAF and PASMA training and we pride ourselves on our customer service and quality training for all of our customers.

We can provide a variety of safety training courses with flexible options to meet our customers needs whether it be at their site or at a training venue, day or night, weekday or weekend.

With ever increasing amounts of legislation, our training courses are designed to help your business meet the demands of your industry and to increase your employees' capabilities, confidence, awareness, safety and productivity.

TRAINING COURSES

Our instructors are skilled in teaching a group of delegates and have a wealth of technical knowledge and practical experience and so can train your staff to get the most out of the equipment safely.

We have some instructors who are already DBS checked and certified and so you can be reassured that we can easily provide training on sites or workplaces where children may be present.

CUSTOMER REVIEWS

10/10 training, been going here for 10+ years and send all our staff here. All our chaps all felt well trained, informative and ticked all the boxes. Theory and test was online prior which saved time and allowed us to learn at own pace. 3a and 3b license holder, can't fault at all.

We booked IPAF training with Harris Safety recently and was very impressed with the service. Lovely girls in the office made it easy to book and the instructor was very friendly. Recommend for anyone requiring training of any sort.

We have used Harris training for a number of courses IPAF & PASMA for all of our staff . We would recommend Harris training every time and continue to use them for re training and new staff.

*Had a great experience, instructor was so friendly and he explained everything clearly and gave plenty of guided practice before the test. Very enjoyable 5**
